The 2010 event will once again be a three night event, spanning March 25-27, 2010. The event will include a storytelling workshop on Thursday evening, March 25, a storytelling showcase on Friday evening, March 26, and our main storytelling event on Saturday, March 27.

This year's theme will be "Faith in History," and our featured storyteller will be William J. Federer. Bill is a frequent guest on various radio and television programs. He is the host of "Faith in History" on the TCT Network. His work has been published in a variety of magazines. He has written 16 books, received numerous awards, and is a former congressional candidate.

Saturday evening at our main event Bill Federer will tell stories about "Faith in History," starting with Jesus and ending with the founding of the United States. Along the way Bill will cover the Roman Empire, the impact of Islam, the Reformation, the basis for our freedoms in America, etc. as he shares stories that glorify God.
